

Relative and Subordinate Clauses

Warm Up! Put an X in the box to say which sentences contain a relative clause.

	Relative clause
Doctor Khalil, who works as a surgeon, was late for work.
Although it was early, there were already a lot of people waiting for the train.
The soldiers marched through the rain because it was Remembrance Day.
Dad wanted ice cream unless there was custard.
The horse, whose saddle was loose, threw its rider off.
The day, which was long and hot, was nearly over.

Getting Hotter! Write a definition for each of the grammatical terms below.

main clause:

.....

subordinate clause:

.....

relative clause:

.....

.....

Now, write an example sentence using a subordinate clause and label the parts of the sentence.

Relative and Subordinate Clauses

On Fire!

Below there is a list of subordinating conjunctions and a list of topics. Your challenge is to write a sentence for each topic using one of the conjunctions! Be creative but make sure your sentence makes sense!

beach	dinner	after	until forest	aeroplane	before	though
mountain	football	although	unless

[illegible]